

- A. Set the gasket (2) onto the base ring on the body (1).
- B. Secure the body of the faucet (1) by twisting the fixing tube (3). Place the faucet on the selected sink or board and then, set the rubber gasket (4) and plastic gasket (5) onto the fixing tube (3) and tighten the fixing nut (6) by hand.
- C. Screw the flexible hose (7) onto the body and connect to the plumbing. After then, remove the faucet aerator, run the water to drain all the impurities, reattach the faucet aerator and ensure that the faucet is working correctly by moving the handle in all directions.
- D. Check the connections for leaks.